When did the “t” go silent?

The official publication date of this edition of The Covenanter is Sunday 1st December. It does not take a genius to work out that Christmas is just around the corner. Are you one of those organised people who has all your Christmas shopping done and perhaps even wrapped? Are your Christmas cards bought, written and waiting to post and are your plans for the festive season well under way? Or is it all going to be a little last minute? The trekking around the shops with crowds of other people still to happen? Don't even know what you are going to get everybody? Are there parties and food, socialising and travel still all to plan?

I have to confess I still have Christmas shopping to think about let alone execute and as to Christmas cards... it is more likely to be a “Turkey Digest” sent after the big day! Still all this talk of Christmas got me thinking... By the time you have sent umpteen cards, kissed a multitude of work colleagues on the cheek (well perhaps not all of them!), given presents and spoken to family and friends, how many people will you have wished a Happy or Merry Christmas?

As you say those words what are you saying? Is it just that you are wishing them a happy holiday time or is it more? Happy Holidays as you hear so much of on American television just does not have the same ring to it as Merry Christmas. Neither does it have the same depth of meaning.

And here is where I came in. When did the “t” go silent, you know the one I mean now, the “t” in the middle of Christmas. Think about it, the “t” might as well not be there. “Christmas” has the same sound as “Christmass” even if my spell checker does not like it! The “t” is important though. Without the “t” we lose the whole sense as to what the day and the season is about. You see the root of our word Christmas is two words “Christ’s Mass”. Christ is obvious from Jesus Christ Son of God born on earth and whose birth we celebrate each and every Christmas. And Mass from the Latin for the celebration of the Eucharist or Holy Communion as we would call it in the Reformed Church. Christ’s Mass is the celebration of His birth on earth and retelling of the story with all the magic and awe that it encompasses and with the hope of peace and goodwill it brings.

So Christmas is a compound word of two words and somewhere along the line the "t" was dropped in pronunciation. Does it matter? Perhaps, perhaps not! It undoubtedly allows some folk to gloss over what the season is truly about. Christ being hidden in the speaking. Yet He is there (indeed he is here!). So what do we wish folk when we say Happy or Merry Christmas? Quite simply, "Have a happy celebration of Christ's birth".

Is that it then? Happy Birthday on behalf of someone else's Birthday! I don't think so. Wishing someone a Happy Christmas is surely more than that.

Christ's birth was about what God was doing on earth. Christ's birth was about God breaking in to give his people a solution. Christ's birth was full of promise. In fact Christ in his life and death was the fulfilment of the promise and He was and is the promise. That promise? That God is there for you in life and death. In Jesus we can know God, we can walk with him and talk with him, we can know the love he pours out and the grace he gives. In Jesus we know the mercy of God and the power of God. In Jesus we know the peace God gives, peace that prevails in the midst of turmoil. All of this and more is wrapped in a tiny bundle of human flesh and laid amongst the straw of a stable. All this is wrapped up in Christmas.

As you wish your friends, family and colleagues a Happy Christmas you are wishing them all that is wrapped up in the word and in the Word made flesh. Perhaps you haven't been aware of that before but perhaps this year you will think about it with each Christmas greeting you send and with each Christmas greeting you receive.

So just to get you started let me wish you a "Happy Christmas", may you know God's peace and love this Christmas-tide, even in the midst of being rushed off your feet getting ready.

Christmas Appeal:

This year we will be supporting East Ayrshire Churches Homelessness Action (EACHa). Based at The New Laigh Kirk in Kilmarnock, EACHa provides well-being packs and children's activity packs to homeless households presenting as homeless to East Ayrshire Council.

What we are looking for are toiletries. Basically anything needed or used in the bathroom. Toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorants, hair brushes, soaps, razors, toilet paper etc. The only exception is no aerosols.

A box will be available in the front pew of the church from this Sunday

Junior Church

Rehearsals for this year's nativity play are starting on Sunday 24th November. Junior Church members and friends of Primary School age are most welcome.

This year it is called "The Landlords Cat"

Hearts of Advent

Our Hearts of Advent Service will be held in Fenwick Parish Church on Sunday 8th December at 7pm. This is a special Service for all who grieve: a time of peace to remember a family member or a friend who was treasured, and a time to give thanks for their precious life. Please bring yourself, your family and your friends.

Sri Lanka News

As many of you know, some of the money people from Fenwick have sent out to Sri Lanka has been to help Sampath build a new pre-school for the children of Rosythe. It is near completion and it will be called "Fenwick pre-school"

Shona Robison, MSP, recently visited Sri Lanka as part of the Commonwealth Meeting. She spent some time at St. Andrew's Scots Kirk and at Netherlee Cottage, and was very impressed with the work being done, and the support given to Netherlee Cottage by Fenwick Parish Church and Netherlee Parish Church in Glasgow

Jokes only understood in Scotland

A Glasgow woman goes to the dentist and settles down in the chair.
'Comfy?' asks the dentist.
'Govan,' she replies.

A guy walks into an antiques shop and says: 'How much for the set of antlers?'
'Two hundred quid,' says the bloke behind the counter'
'That's affa dear,' says the guy.
'Aye yer right!' replies the bloke

Did you hear about the fella who liked eating bricks and cement?
He's awa' noo.

After announcing he's getting married, a boy tells his pal he'll be wearing the kilt.
'And what's the tartan?' asks his mate.
'Oh, she'll be wearing a white dress,'

A Scotsman in London is having trouble phoning his sister from a telephone box. So he calls the operator who asks in a plummy voice:
'Is there money in the box?'
'Naw, it's just me,' he replies.

While getting ready to go out, a wee wifie says to her husband:
'Do you think I'm getting a wee bit pigeon chested?'
And he says: 'Aye, but that's why I love you like a doo.'

What do you call a pigeon that goes to Aviemore for its holidays?
A skean dhu.

Did you hear about the BBC Scotland series that features the queue for the toilets at Waverley Station?
It's called 'The Aw' Needin' Line.'

While being interviewed for a job as a bus driver, a guy is asked:
'What would you do if you had a rowdy passenger?' 'I'd put him off at the next stop,' he says. 'Good. And what would you do if you couldn't get the fare?' 'I'd take the first two weeks in August,' he replies.

The Fulton Club

Our meeting on Wednesday 6th November was a belated Halloween Party, with quite a few of our (female!) members turning up dressed as cleaning ladies. Hugh and Bill were given the difficult task of choosing the winner. Nan Tivendale was in first place, with Mary Speirs a close second. After a lovely tea of scones and cakes provided by Mary, Maureen and Lorraine, we finished off with dooking for apples.

Our Christmas lunch is on Wednesday 4th December at the Cotton Mill. We meet again in the Fulton Hall on Wednesday 8th January 2014 at 2pm. Details will be announced later.

Community Action Plan

A very big 'thank you' to everyone who attended the Open Day in the Church Hall on Sunday 27th October.

Over 150 people signed in, and judging from the number of green dots that appeared on the sheets provided for listing priorities, all of you had firm ideas about what you thought was needed to improve the village! In addition to listing their priorities, a number of people left their names saying that they wanted to stay in touch with the themes.

The next step is the production of the five-year Community Action Plan; This document should be available early in the New Year.

Thanks are also due to the many volunteers who helped by providing refreshments, setting up stalls and clearing away afterwards

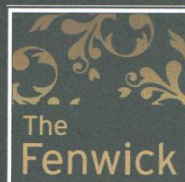

If you would like any more information, please contact Irene Couper on 01560 600520.

Fenwick Church Annual Whist Drive

The Whist drive will be held in the Church Hall on Friday 17th January 2014 at 7.30pm.

Fenwick Church Guild

On October 29th our meeting was all about Ice Cream when we had Gavin and May Wylie of Beith telling us about farmhouse ice-cream.

We were able to sample and purchase ice-cream in many original flavours.

Our next meeting is on the 26th November when we will hear all about "The Julius Project" this is one of the Guild Projects for this session.

The Guild Silent Auction and Coffee Evening is on Friday the 6th Dec at 7.00pm when all are welcome entry is only £1 with tea or coffee and goodies. We hope you will all come and bid for the numerous items on auction. The Christmas Dinner is on Tuesday the 17th December this is a members only occasion at 6.30pm there will be a short Advent service prior to the dinner at 7.00pm.

For all types of

PLASTERING, ARTEX, TILING,
ROUGHCASTING, CORNICE WORK,

Fenwick Bowling Club

The monthly whist drives have taken place. Ladies President, Jane McVey took charge at the afternoon one and the winners were - pink cards 1st Jean Currie; 2nd Margaret McWhirter; consolation Ann Campbell. White cards 1st Jean Murdoch; 2nd Betty Tippen; consolation Anne Mitchell.

Tom Paterson was cardmaster at the evening whist and Jane McVey presented the prizes. The winners were - ladies 1st Margaret Connell; 2nd Sylvia Milne; 3rd Meggi Trainer; consolation Eileen Johnston. Gents 1st Jean Murdoch; 2nd Angus Rodger; 3rd Margaret Shanks; consolation Ian Milne.

The dates for the next whists are Thursday, December 5th at 2pm and Saturday, December 14th at 7.30pm, both in the clubhouse. Anyone interested will be made very welcome.

Four teams took part in the Club Fours competition, held in the Galleon last week.

The "B" team were the winners in the ladies section and the players were Alice Goldie, Jean Robertson, Marilyn Morton and Janette Weadon (skip). The "A" team were beaten in the semi-final. Unfortunately both gents teams weren't so successful, but well done to everyone who took part.
